These rules have mostly become obsolete by reason of the changes since effected in the following respects:
	(i) Dispensing with the Selection Examinations
	(ii) Doing away with

Senior Surgeon's notes on the Draft Rules to regulate the grant of scholarships to candidates to qualify as Sub Assistant Surgeons

---ooOoo---

Rule 1 To restrict the number of scholarships to 12 is not advisable. For obvious reasons, it may be left to the Senior Surgeon to fix the number every year, having regard to the probable requirements of the service Again it is not likely that any of the candidates selected by the Senior Surgeon will be unwilling to qualify themselves as Sub Assistant Surgeons The rule may perhaps be recast and 2 new rules added as follows -

1. A certain number of scholarships, each tenable for a period of four years will, every year, be sanctioned by the Government of Mysore to candidates selected by the Senior Surgeon, to enable them to qualify themselves for the post of Sub Assistant Surgeons

2 The number of scholarships to be awarded in any year will be fixed by the Senior Surgeon with due regard to the needs of the Department and the sanction of Government thereto will be applied for in the beginning of -- March

3 As soon as such sanction is received, the Senior Surgeon shall cause a notification to be published in the Mysore Gazette inviting applications from qualified candidates

4 After this may come Rule 3 (c) which may be numbered 4

5 (a) (b) Then the present Rules 3 (a) & (b) as Rules 5 (a) - and (b)

6(a) (b) Next may come the draft Rules 2 (a) and (b) renumbered as 6 (a),(b)

7 A new rule 7 may be added to the effect that

These

These scholarships will be made available only in such Medical Schools as may be approved by the Government"

8 Draft rule 4 may be numbered 8. With regard to this, I would suggest these covenants being exempted from stamp duty as in Madras (vide Madras Civil Medical Code Article 264), poverty being one of the qualifications entitling a candidate to receive a scholarship When the Government is prepared to spend about Rs 700/- on the education of a candidate, an extra Rs 5/- by way of stamp duty may as well be foregone This may perhaps require an amendment of the stamp law

9 (a) Draft rule 5 (a)- the words "in a recognised Medical School" may be omitted - as new rule 7 suggested above will make it impossible for stipendiary pupils to -- study in unrecognised schools 5 (b) & (c) - may remain as 9 (b) & (c)

The necessity for draft rule 5 (d) is not quite apparent, since all Government servants (except lent officers and others engaged on special terms) are subject to the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations

Draft Covenant This seems to be somewhat defective and it may well be sent to the Government Advocate for revision The following points suggest themselves to me -

(1) As at present worded, it is doubtful whether, in case the stipend cannot be recovered from a defaulting stipendiary, the same can be recovered from the "Sureties" If it cannot be so recovered, the so-called sureties are mere"witnesses" They must also "execute" the covenant (as laid down in draft rule 4) and for this purpose they will have to sign a declaration that they jointly & severally bind themselves to pay to Government the sum of Rs _____ in case the stipendiary for whom they stand surety violates any of the conditions of the bond and the money, which he shall have to refund in consequence, cannot be recovered from him.

(2) The words "as a Sub Assistant Surgeon" in claus 1 of the covenant may be omitted. 7 years' service both as passed medical pupil and as Sub Assistant Surgeon is perhaps sufficient to release the stipendiary from his bond.

(3) In clause 2, for the word "stipend" the words the whole amount spent by the Government on my professional education" or any other words to the like effect may be substituted. The refund may be insisted on in case the student relinquishes his studies, gets himself dismissed from school for misconduct or any other cause, fails to prosecute his studies with due diligence, or to duly qualify himself as Sub Assistant Surgeon. It is better to expressly mention all the conditions under which a refund will be required

In Madras, as soon as a candidate is selected to undergo the training, his parent or guardian or a friend must enter into an agreement (exempt from stamp duty) binding himself (i) that the stipended student will complete his course of study; and (ii) that he will, at the end of his course, enter into further agreement, if required by Government. The only copy of the surety bond available in this office is sent herewith for perusal. A copy of the further agreement will be forwarded when received from Madras. It may perhaps be better to draw up our Forms of Bond on the model of those in force in Madras.
